

Somethin' 'Bout His Thuggish Ways (Paperback)

By Kc Mills

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Mero Perez is all things to all people. He's handsome, confident, and unmistakably thuggish in every sense of the word. Mero Perez is in demand, but he's very selective about who he lets in his world. For the ones he loves, he honors, protects, and will do any and everything necessary to make sure they live a life of royalty. After fifteen years in the streets, he's built a world that allows him to give all things to those he loves and to live without regrets. What else is there to do besides walk away and enjoy everything that he's worked so hard to gain? If only it were that easy. It's proving to be more difficult than he assumed it would be. Within the blink of an eye, his world begins crashing down around him. The wife that he's loved for the past six years has secrets that will end them, while his family becomes a target of an unknown assailant. Everything that he believed true about his life is slowly changing, including the woman who now holds his interest. Khaleel Perez has a...
